DID YOU KNOW

- Missing one day a week of school from reception to year 10 means missing two years and one term of schooling.
- There is a direct correlation between attendance and achievement.
- Frequent absences make it difficult for teachers who have to continually re-teach information and skills.
- Being half an hour late to school each day from reception to year 10 equals missing one year and one-and-a-half terms of schooling.
- Patterns of attendance/absence are set up in the early years of schooling.
- Being absent five days a term from reception to year 10 adds up to more than one year of missed schooling.
- Poor attendance makes it difficult for students to form positive relationships with their peers.

Attendance Procedures
Responsibilities (cont)

Students will:
- attend school every day unless they have a valid reason
- participate in all areas of schooling
- respect other's right to attend in a safe, secure learning environment
- be honest, open in communication between home and school e.g. by ensuring that notes are delivered and returned

Teachers will encourage maximum attendance by:
- providing a safe, secure and stimulating learning environment
- developing programmes to meet learning needs of individual students
- use positive, open communication with home
- providing a learning environment that encourages full participation by being relevant, enjoyable and values successes
- gaining insight into the ‘whole child’ and/or issues preventing attendance
- inducting new children and families into the school culture and procedures

Follow up non-attendance: by
- keeping accurate class roll books in line with DECD guidelines
- seeking reasons for non-attendance/lateness through the stages of:
  - informal parent contact
  - school diaries
  - home visit/telephone

Front Office Staff will:
- enter attendance records including any reasons
- notify teachers of phone messages concerning attendance

Good attendance is paramount to
- Children achieving success in their learning
- The development of positive relationships
